North Georgia College & State University's 2012 Spanish Summer Language Institute and the Department of Modern Languages will host a series of new films from Spain and Latin America on Thursday evenings from 7-9 p.m. beginning July 12.

Antes del Estreno (July 12), La isla interior (July 19), and Las marimbas del infierno (July 26) will be shown in the Special Collections Room 382 at the Library and Technology Center.

All films are subtitled and the series is free and open to the public.

More information about these films, including a brief synopsis and the film trailers may be found at <http://spanishsli2012.wordpress.com/pragda-film-festival/>.

This series is made possible with the support of Pragda, the Secretary of State Culture of Spain, and its Program for Cultural Cooperation with United States Universities in collaboration with North Georgia's Spanish Summer Language Institute and the Department of Modern Languages.

North Georgia College & State University is committed to providing equal opportunity in education and employment to all applicants, students, and employees. The university does not discriminate in access to its educational programs and activities, or with respect to hiring or the terms and conditions of employment, on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, creed, sex, gender identity and expression, political affiliation, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation. The university actively promotes diversity among students and employees.
