SOUTHWESTERN SPANISH FILM FESTIVAL Cine: El Nino Pez

Starting September 6 and continuing through October 4, Southwestern University is hosting a Spanish film festival with the theme, Sexualidad Cinematica. Films are presented by the Spanish film club with collaboration with many university departments and campus organizations. The club focuses on discovering new cinema from Spain and Latin America. Films include English subtitles. The movies are shown on Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. in Olin 105 on the SU campus. The first film in the series on September 6 was El Nino Pez. Other films in the series are La Yuma, A Contracorriente, Southern District and Chico & Rita. Films are open to the community and are free.
