4TH ANNUAL FESTIVAL OF NEW SPANISH CINEMA IN SEATTLE

The energy of Almodóvar. The risk-taking of Amenábar. The unadulterated exhilaration of Buñuel. The fourth annual Festival of New Spanish Cinema, our biggest and riskiest yet, unveils the next generation of Spanish film legends.

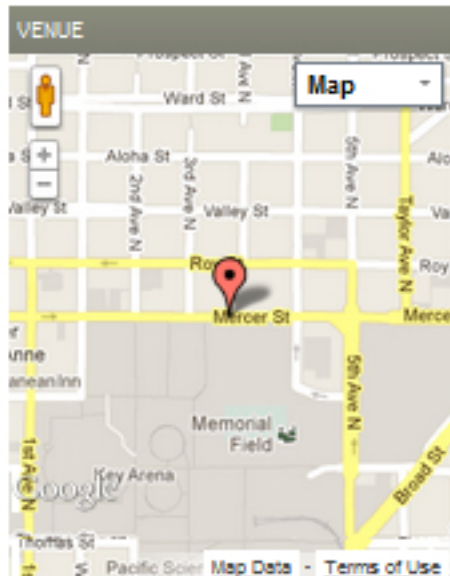

Featuring first-time filmmakers and established masters alike, the very best in contemporary Spanish cinema comes to Seattle for fourth year in a row. Join us for award-winning comedies, romances and dramatic masterpieces, and the special unveiling of a horror classic.

But we celebrate Spanish-style, which means we don't stop with screenings alone: our tour includes U.S. premieres, parties, live music, visiting directors and actors, and live online interviews with filmmakers that offer you a direct line to Spain.

Organized by Pragda and SIFF Cinema. Supported by the Embassy of Spain in Washington DC and Ministry of Culture of Spain-ICAA. Additional support comes from Consulate of Spain in Seattle, Consulate of Spain in San Francisco, Instituto Cervantes Seattle, University of Washington, Iberia Airlines, American Airlines, Eurochannel and Martín Códax Wine and Las Rocas Wine, our exclusive wine sponsor.
